DELTA FAIR

The greatest fun I have each year
Is at the Delta Fair;
Where farmers take a holiday
And all the folks are there.

Where horses, goats and cows receive
The ribbons they deserve;
And people are rewarded for
The pies and cakes they serve.

I love the carnival for kids
With candy and balloons;
Where barkers shout and lovers see
A dozen different moons.

Where there are wheels and bingo games
On which to take a chance;
And music for the big parade
In pomp and circumstance.

And whether I take home a prize
Or both my hands are bare;
The greatest fun I have each year
Is at the DELTA FAIR
